The Power of One: Growing Workforce Talent

Speak-Up: Speakers Bureau

Are you an educator looking for a representative from the Healthcare field to discuss career opportunities in the industry? Interested in information from local Healthcare providers? “Speaking Up!” shares info on:

- Career Paths in Health Care
- Training Opportunities
 - Career Options
- Wages and Advancement

Sometimes the best way to learn about the different opportunities available in health care is to talk to professionals on how they started their careers. First hand information about “what’s hot” in the industry and “what’s not” can mean the difference of choosing one career path over another. Valuable information is shared about what kind of training was received and what a typical workday is like.
